Please note the following:

1. We prefer written orders (by fax, DX, or post) but you can order by telephone if required. If you order by telephone, please make sure you have the information requested on this form available before you call. Please DO NOT send written confirmation of a telephone order.
2. It is recommended that you complete Section A of this form (in black ink using block capitals or a typewriter) to make your own master copy, keeping this in the plastic pocket supplied, and then photocopy it to make your own order forms as you need them. If you wish to order more than eight items simply continue on another copy order form (and write the sheet numbers in the box provided above).
3. Please note that the minimum order value is £10.00 (excluding VAT). Details of our conditions of sale are available on request.
4. RESTRICTIONS ON USE The Society's Standard Terms of Engagement (SOC7) and all other Society stationery produced for use only by Practising Members (including, SOC10, SOC11, SOC14 & SOC16), are an important membership benefit, intended for use only by current members of the Society. Where a practice has more than one principal, then any Society stationery intended only for use by members should only be purchased by that practice if both, or all, of the principals who are licensed conveyancers are current Practising Members.
5. COPYRIGHT The publications sold, including the 'SOC' range of forms, is copyright and is sold subject to the professional undertaking set out below. If copyright is found to be breached then future orders may be declined and legal proceedings for compensation taken.
6. UNDERTAKING On behalf of the above named practice/organisation, I/we acknowledge that the author's copyright is asserted in any of the publications produced by the Society or by Services for Conveyancers. By placing this order I/we undertake to observe copyright. In particular I/we confirm that I/we will not by any means reproduce or store either the whole or part of the content of the publications or any future version, or any similar publication by the author, nor shall I/we knowingly provide the same to any other person or allow another to have the publication, or any future version, for the above prohibited purposes or any other that would breach the author's copyright.
